ISLAMABAD (Xinhua) – Pakistan will try five American men arrested earlier this month over terrorism charges, a senior official said December 24. The five were believed to have gone missing from the Washington, D.C. area last month. Sargodha District Police Officer Dr. Usman told a news conference in the northeastern Pakistani city that interrogation of the suspects has been completed and they would be tried on terrorism charges. Usman said that all men will appear in an anti-terrorism court December 25.
