B5

Megan had a long, and I think productive, conversation with Judith about the speech this morning. You are absolutely right on the tone, and Judith helped Megan work through adjustments [Redacted]

[Redacted]

I just spoke with Megan, who is now taking another turn through it.

I will have more to say when I see you on the plane, but I wanted to share some thoughts from Judith McHale, that are not in reaction to the speech which I doubt she's seen, but which more generally address the question of communicating w Muslim audiences.

Judith mentions a recent piece by Joe Nye which is also worth reading that I will forward to you. Thx.
