

RELEASE IN PART B6

---

From: Lew, Jacob J <LewJJ@state.gov>
Sent: Sunday, January 17, 2010 6:09 AM
To: H
Subject: Re: Monday

Welcome back. I changed my plans and will be back in DC this morning. I have meetings between 9 and noon but will be available any time in the afternoon today or tomorrow and can work around your schedule. After spending several hours on the phone last night I wanted to come back and attend to some of the logistical coordination issues.

----- Original Message -----

From: H <HDR22@clintonemail.com>
To: 'jacobjlew [redacted]'; Lew, Jacob J
Sent: Sun Jan 17 00:54:07 2010
Subject: Monday

Jack--

In looking at my schedule, I could talk w you by phone Sunday or Monday, rather than meeting, which would give you back your Monday and service event. I learned the office will be closed Monday, so I will be working from home. Does that make sense?

What times would be good to talk tomorrow or Monday?

Thx, Hillary

B6