I would say that: There appears to be misinformation circulating. While sympathetic to all parties, the GOE has not indicated any willingness to interfere in the proceedings of the Egyptian courts that currently are considering Mr. Bower's challenge to the Egyptian custody decree. We do not know when that judicial process will be completed, although the next hearing is scheduled for October. The Embassy is currently trying to assure that Mr. Bower, who is en route to Egypt now, will be able to see his sons as called for in a current Egyptian court order.

Thanks - I want to send something back in response - can you advise what points are appropriate to make and that are consistent w/ what has been said publicly to them?

I checked again with Kerry's staff. . .this did not come from them and does not reflect the gist of the Senator's conversation with Mubarak. I will certainly try to pin down the source of such assertions when I see Mr. Bower. It is

That is what Bower told me and indicated that Mubarak had mentioned those conditions to Sen. Kerry. Bower also said he has a back channel to M's chief of staff who reportedly said the same thing. Could well be someone making mischief.

Is this true?

What would be the source for such information and such suggestions?

See also my concern again seeking to make this S/cdm issue as opposed to an operational issue for our protocols and processes in department.

Hi Cheryl,

I thought you would be interested in this information which comes from a US Govt source outside the State Dept. Don't know if the Secretary was aware of the back channel discussions at the time she raised the case. Mubarak apparently feels no one has responded to his wish list which may have something to do with turning over the kids into a visitation

Gov -

If you feel comfortable - there is one more piece of info we believe cheryl mills needs to have - and that is - the fact that mubarek is trying to do some horse trading regarding the return of the bower boys. Mubarek wants - health care in usa for himself, some chit w clintons in future, consideration on human rights bill, and consideration for his successor. I am not saying that USG has to give in on these. But I am saying that USG has to be aware that mubarek wants to solve our issue - but wants his requests to at least be acknowledged.

Might you pass to cheryl? She is our only directly line to hrc at moment. We have made the bureaucrats aware - but its not making it up the food chain
