Jake:

I am on vacation this week, but wanted S to have the attached paper [redacted]
[redacted] There are three attachments, which Stephen Townley can get to you on the high side. Please don't hesitate to call if you have any questions.

She may want to read this paper before she turns to the annotated agenda for tomw's meeting. As you will see, the specific recommendations we suggest to her on the particular issues [redacted] are best understood as part of a broader recommendation we have about adopting an overall strategy to reclaim the initiative on GTMO closure.
