

RELEASE IN PART B6

From: Strobe Talbott [redacted]
Sent: Friday, October 21, 2011 3:04 PM
To: H
Subject: RE: Mullen -- and more

B6

Assume you know "Dushanbe" means "Monday" in Persian, cuz that was (and may still be) the market day. So if you're giving a speech, you can't say, "If it's Friday, this must be Dushanbe." But you can say absolutely anything else you want, Madam Secretary. Cheers. S.

-----Original Message-----

From: H [mailto:HDR22@clintonemail.com]
Sent: Friday, October 21, 2011 2:32 PM
To: Strobe Talbott
Subject: Re: Mullen

You travel more that I do! I'm delighted about Mike joining the circus--be well, cheers from Dushanbe.

----- Original Message -----

From: Strobe Talbott [mailto:[redacted]]
Sent: Wednesday, October 19, 2011 04:00 PM
To: H
Subject: Mullen

B6

Great on getting Mike for FAPB. Dashing through O'Hare connecting homeward from Hong Kong, which reverberates with good buzz on your speech there and where I had a lovely dim sum lunch with [redacted] Cheers. Strobe

B6