Fred and I had a long mtg with the Moroccan "minister delegate" (#2 in the MFA but with cabinet rank), Yousef Amrani, today. Amrani is a good guy -- we've known him for years. [redacted]

I think basically this is good news for us (even if weird and telling for Morocco's "democracy"), as Yousef is favorably disposed to us and he's someone I can call easily.

So: I'd like to just take S over to him to say hello on the margins of the UNSC session today. [redacted]
