

RELEASE IN PART B6

From: H <hrod17@clintonemail.com>
Sent: Wednesday, February 29, 2012 8:37 AM
To: 'JVillarreal' [redacted]
Cc: 'ValmoroLj@state.gov'
Subject: Re: Mexico

Dear Jose--

You're a Superstar! And I would love to catch up w you. I'm copying Lona so we can start working on a time for a visit.

[redacted] I'm sure

she would appreciate hearing from you.

All the best, H

----- Original Message -----

From: Villarreal, Jose [mailto:[redacted]]
Sent: Saturday, February 18, 2012 12:22 PM
To: H
Subject: Mexico

Dear Madam Secretary - I wanted to let you that our Mexico diaspora project has really taken off. I also wanted to inform you that in addition to Mexico I have made a decision to focus on education for this next phase of my life. Accordingly, I have joined the national boards of Teach for America and the KIPP Foundation.

I'm trying to entice [redacted] to join Teach For All, the global arm of TFA as we are launching an Enseña por México program this year and opening a KIPP school in Torreon.

We have discovered that as Mexican Americans, our most valuable contribution to Mexico is serving as a conduit for US NGO's who have an interest in working in Mexico. Eg, Henry Cisneros is on national board of Habitat for Humanity and we facilitating their entry into Mexico.

I'd love to brief you in more detail at some point but for now, if you were to acknowledge to [redacted] that the Teach for All project is exciting, that would be most welcome. She has so much respect and affection for you (as do I). Her connection to you would give her an unbelievably powerful imprimatur.

She would be great and I am totally convinced that if we are to reverse Mexico's tragic trajectory we must focus on its youth. The thing I like about both TFA and KIPP is that they not only focus on academics but on developing young people into great citizens and leaders. That's what Mexico needs.

Warmly, jose villarreal
Jose H. Villarreal

[redacted]

IRS Circular 230 Notice Requirement: This communication is not given in the form of a covered opinion, within the meaning of Circular 230 issued by the United States Secretary of the Treasury. Thus, we are required to inform you that you cannot rely upon any tax advice contained in this communication for the purpose of avoiding United States federal tax penalties. In addition, any tax advice contained in this communication may not be used to promote, market or recommend a transaction to another party.

The information contained in this e-mail message is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the recipient(s) named above. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by e-mail, and delete the original message.