Cheryl,

[Redacted]

Political ambassadors need to get to know their own staff members before they make such requests! They also need to understand that the role of the ambassador is to manage and make good use of both the embassy staff and guidance from Washington, not just make themselves look good. With very rare exceptions, the US and the Philippines are the only countries in the world to send diplomatic neophytes overseas, [Redacted]

Office handles all the clearances and vetting connected with Schedule C appointments, including contacting references. But before passing all this to them, I wanted to be sure you were aware of this proposed one-year appointment and comfortable with it.

Many thanks! Bob
