Subject: International Joint Commission [U.S.-Canada]
Date: October 16, 2009

The President has the authority to appoint all three U.S. Commissioners to the International Joint Commission. The IJC is an independent U.S.-Canadian organization established by the Boundary Waters Treaty of 1909. Its purpose is to help prevent and resolve disputes relating to the use and quality of boundary waters and to advise Canada and the United States on related questions.
