NYT called to report that their correspondent in Tripoli was just told by Mohamed Ismail, Saif al-Islam al-Qadhafi's chief of staff, that the Libyans "approve the handover to the Turks" and may be ready to do the transfer as early as tonight. NYT heard similar report from a "senior contact in the NGO community" (NFI) who apparently has also been reaching out to the Libyans on their behalf.

[Redacted] had been working to get Libyans to release NYT journalists, + will continue. Will now deploy fresh point of official TU status as USG protecting power [Redacted], also if needed, TU readiness to serve as Libyan PP in US.
