Subject: Maureen White work is on track

Maureen and I met yesterday and our discussions remain on course for her to amplify our efforts in maternal mortality by focusing on fragile states such as Afghanistan. In preparation for a joint note on this from Ambassador Grossman and I, Maureen and I are meeting with Jen Klein and Rick Barton to ensure that this is well-coordinated with related goals and that we are working with the right colleagues at State and USAID. Maureen is consistently terrific and I expect a great result.
