Hi all,

Just a heads up - Ops saw that DCM Blau in El Salvador is reporting that OAS Secretary General Insulza is trying to convince Zelaya to return to DC to meet with the Secretary tomorrow (see below).

Courtney - Just wanted to flag the following sentence for you re: Zelaya from the update below.

"Insulza is also here and wants to help convince Zelaya to return to WashDC to meet SecState tomorrow."

Cheers,

Mario

Am at VIP lounge at Comalapa Airport--Presidents Kirschner and Correa are here; also D'Escoto. Funes changed plans and is also coming, according to FMin Hugo Martinez. Insulza is also here and wants to help convince Zelaya to return to WashDC to meet SecState tomorrow. Except that latest info has Zelaya's plane landing in Managua.

Airport is circus-like with lots of media present as well as an FMLN contingent in front of the terminal ready to do a pro-Zelaya demonstration should he show up.

Sir,

- Venezuelan aircraft with Zelaya left Miami Center control for Mexican ATC. It did not change its flight plan before it departed Miami Center airspace, so it is still filed for Managua, NIC

- Second Venezuelan aircraft landed in Ft Lauderdale and has not filed another clearance as of this email

- Ecuadorian aircraft (FAE027) with Ecuadorian and Argentine President has departed Miami Center airspace and is under Havana Control on its flight plan to Toncontin, Honduras (Tegucigalpa)

- PFACC has open VTC with JTF-B and is able to pass real-time updates

- 12 - 15K Red (pro Zelaya) peaceful protestors have gained access to the Toncontin airport parking lot and an area under construction toward the end of the runway.

Sir,

Latest update on Honduras:

- Two Venezuelan aircraft are on ramp at Dulles: One aircraft is scheduled to carry President Zelaya and currently has flight plan to Ft Lauderdale according to NORAD FAA rep
- The second aircraft has a flight plan to San Salvador, El Salvador
- Both aircraft had flight plans to take off at 1426 EDT, and have delayed there takeoff several times and changed flight plans. None of the aircraft have taken off as of this email
- One Ecuadorian aircraft with President Correa on-board was scheduled to take off at 1424 EDT and has also delayed its takeoff several times. This aircraft has a flight plan to Toncontin, Honduras (Tegucigalpa), 4.5 hours flight time
- Demonstrators for both sides (Red - Pro-Zelaya) and White (Pro-Interim Gov) are preparing to march to airport at Tegucigalpa from University

- Reds have 5K demonstrators and plan to head to airport in Tegucigalpa. Reds numbers are expected to grow to 10K
- Whites demonstrators are at 5K and are also expected to grow to 10K
- Interim Government plans to block runway at Tegucigalpa so aircraft are unable to land
