B6

I'll be at the White House in a meeting until 6:45 pm or so. I have a speech planned at 7:30, but can move it to later. Also, Wed now works because this meeting is moving to Thursday afternoon. At the same time, I recognize that this is impinging on your time - and it was nice of you to call today. Just wanted to get your views/gut on some of these options. And who knows, we may have plenty of meetings where this stuff gets litigated.

Let me know and thanks again for your time.
