Congress Senate likely to ratify child support treaty after Rich's meeting with deMint yesterday in which he explained there was no link to Convention on the Rights of the Child. Senate ready to ratify Defense Trade Treaties with UK and Australia; Berman still holding up passage of implementing legislation in House which is a necessary prerequisite for ratification until we ease defense export controls on Israel. [redacted] CR will be very slim – e.g. Congress won't agree to continue funding for Afghan at supp. levels, and will likely cover until end of November. Following meetings with Pentagon on EJK, we're ready to brief Hill that we're in compliance with Leahy standards in Pakistan security assistance. Looks likely Jack could be confirmed for OMB next Thursday night; Congress will go out next Friday. Breakfast with Congressional leaders on development set for Wednesday at 0800 at the Department.
