Frank,

As of 0430 local: the Paks brought the wreckage of the helo to the airport as agreed. There were eight truckloads, much more than we had thought. They're packing and loading at the airport, and we hope will be airborne soon. Bottom line: The Paks delivered.

Subject: Chopper tail

Frank,

At around 2100 local Senator Kerry called me asking about the chopper tail. I told him we believe it will be turned over to us around midnight tonight.

I've checked again, and yes, we think we'll have a C-17 on the ground at midnight, load the package, and get it out of here – estimated around 0200.

Please pass this to whomever needs to know – and we'll call to confirm later tonight when this happens.

Cameron
