Welcome back!
The full Pak report will be given	to Paks and Afghans tomorrow and released publicly Monday.
UNSC put out a pretty bare-bone	es press statement on the bombings in Syria, which I've copied below.
That's about it.
Security Council Press Statemen	t on Terrorist Attacks in Damascus
Syria on 23 December, causing s condolences to the victims of the The members of the Security Co most serious threats to internat	nuncil condemned in the strongest terms the terrorist attacks that occurred in Damascus, acores of deaths and injuries. They expressed their deep sympathy and sincere ese heinous acts and to their families, and to the people of Syria.  Suncil reaffirmed that terrorism in all its forms and manifestations constitutes one of the ional peace and security, and that any acts of terrorism are criminal and unjustifiable, wherever, whenever and by whomsoever committed.
The members of the Security Co	ouncil reiterated their determination to combat all forms of terrorism, in accordance with arter of the United Nations.

The members of the Security Council reminded States that they must ensure that measures taken to combat terrorism comply with all their obligations under international law, in particular international human rights, refugee and humanitarian law.
