2:50 - 3:50pm Meeting with Ian Martin and UN leadership

UN Information Center

UNSMIL proposes an hour-long meeting with Ian Martin and team (DSRSG George Sharpentier, chief of staff HansJoerg Strohmeier, and Senior Political Advisor Muin Shareim). UNSMIL would like to discuss engagement with the TNC, including a strategy for ensuring the TNC stays in the lead while also ensuring that the international community can help the TNC make progress on priority issues; and the ways that UNSMIL can support the activities called for in UNSCR 2017. (FYI: UNSMIL is very concerned about overlap with the POE due to UNSCR 2017.) UNSMIL would appreciate a heads-up on any particular issues our visitor would like to raise with them.

3:50 -4:30pm En route Mass Grave Site

4:30 -5:15pm Mass graves site visit: UNSMIL also suggested that the delegation visit a mass graves site. They suggested that this would be a good way to show concern for human rights issues in a non-confrontational way, and noted that this public show of concern for Qadhafi-era abuses would probably make any tough messages regarding current human rights issues (such as minority rights and national reconciliation) go over a bit more smoothly. The Embassy has been in touch with the head of the national commission for the search & identification of the missing and is confident he could arrange a very good program that could include meetings with former prisoners, families of the missing, and the visit to a mass graves site. The Embassy could also invite an NGO that is working on these issues, to bring in a civil society element. The Embassy will visit a potential site tomorrow and send back more details afterwards. The Embassy thinks this is the best option for your sole non-meeting event.

o Mercy Corps has agreed to host a civil society roundtable and light snacks (assume this will take the place of a full-on lunch, which would eat into your schedule, so to speak). As it happens, there will be an exhibition at the center the day of your visit that showcases videos and photos produced by participants in an OTI-funded project on strategic comms/reconciliation. Envoy's Office is gathering more info on the exhibition, which will be unveiled to the public later in the evening. The roundtable need not be related to the exhibit – let us know what you would like the focus to be, and we'll identify the participants (ie, women activists, or a hybrid of women/democracy/HR activists).

1:30 -1:45pm En route Benghazi Data Center

1:45 – 2:30pm Briefing from engineers from the Libyana Company in the Benghazi Data Center soft switch facility (the eastern Libyan phone/internet network's "nerve center.")

☐ Meeting with Khalid Mufti

o As for the telecom hacker-heros, Khalid Mufti will not be in town during the visit (in fact, he's in London now). However, he has offered to arrange for his team to meet with the delegation and show them what they did to salvage the comms in eastern Libya during the revolution. The site would be the telecom building in Benghazi, which is on the way to the airport from downtown and would therefore be a convenient stop at the end of the day. (Site visit still pending)

I'd like readouts of both mtgs. Where are they being held? Should we plan on getting together after Burma and before Cui or after Cui?
