Subject: Omitted thoughts in Memo

B6

I re-read the Memo when I returned home and realized I left out a couple of thoughts. And, as the old saying goes, I'm sorry I didn't have more time to make it shorter!

1.4(B)
1.4(D)

Second: The visit of Indian Prime Minister Singh to Kabul last week was a very significant event. His speech before Parliament should be closely tracked against Pakistani policy. They are, in fact, closely aligned and that is not an accident on the part of India. I believe this visit affirms the possibilities of the Indian-Afghan-Pakistan track and merits our whole hearted, immediate followup.

Three:
meeting

Finally:
