hope you are well. i soped you in on a little email i sent to [REDACTED]. he got screwed over with [REDACTED]. just like [REDACTED], and countless others...

the pictures will help. you will see that they have a group of sexual predators, deviants running rampant over there. no, they are not jamming guys in the ass per say, but they are showing no judgement. i think guys in this business are pretty much some of the best and some of the worst. it is the companies responsibility to protect the good from the bad until they show their ugly heads and can be removed. in this case the ugly ones are running the damn thing or in the case of joe ordonna are too clueless to recognize the truth or has no power to change it.

in the event [REDACTED] fails to inform you. peeing on people, eating potato chips out of ass cracks, vodka shots out of ass cracks (there is video of that one), broken doors after drunken brawls, threats and intimidation from those leaders participating in this activity. people have been terminated, like [REDACTED] because he would not play their games and his slip up gave them the opportunity to get rid of him.

i know this entire thing is going to make life less bearable over there for all of us. i'll be bringing alcohol to some sane, accountable leadership. i am heading back on wed p.m. before i do. i want you to know that there are some good people over there doing great work. we are not scouts but there should be some expectation of professionalism in ones leadership. AGNA has been blind to all this and those good people are getting worn out and chewed up over it all. anyway the DOS has turned their backs to the guys on the ground and let the prostitution and gay shit continue. (note: i have not spoken to them, but i know over all this time someone had to drop that dime.)
