What a remarkable achievement to get the Turks and Armenians to come this far together. You are deservedly getting good positive press for your efforts.

I just wanted you to know that the women in NI with whom you "walked the walk" over the years are eagerly looking forward to seeing you. They were so incredibly helpful during your campaign telling the story of what you did to support them, and as we know -- and as they have shown -- women are critical both to the peace process and to the peace holding. Inez is planning to welcome you with a few words -- as she has done for over a decade. I will be with you all in spirit.
