Subject: FROM AMBASSADOR SUSMAN

Dear Cheryl:

We in London are extremely excited for Secretary Clinton's visit. Hopefully if you join her we will have a few minutes to get together. The purpose of this e-mail is to bring you up to date on my decision regarding the potential employment of [redacted] as my Schedule C assistant. I met two times with [redacted] and the meetings confirmed everything you said as to her capabilities, intelligence and personality. My conclusion at the end of the meetings was that [redacted] was so overqualified for the position we need to fill. It would be like trying to fit a square peg into a round hole and it would end up not working out for either of us. Our needs are 80% administrative, evidenced by our position description which is attached.

I believe that [redacted] understood my difficulties in attempting to have a Special Assistant with her skills. That being said, I definitely want to use her capabilities and create a relationship not only personally, but with the Embassy in the future. I have appointed her to [redacted] which she was very excited about. I am in the process of looking for special projects in the Embassy and to make introductions to major corporations who may be able to use her skills in the private sector. I am attaching her e-mail to me, which speaks for itself.

A Schedule C assistant is needed and very important here in Embassy London. I will be forwarding on to Heather Samuelson two additional resumes of candidates we are now interviewing.

I will keep you posted on how we are doing.

Regards,
Louis
