B6

Sorry you had to give up Jack Lew

Know you are thinking about next step. I want you to have what and who you need, but I think [redacted] would be terrific.

Know that [redacted] name has been all over blogosphere, nothing she is happy about Don't have to tell you how extraordinary she is Know she wants you to have exactly what you want and need I had always hoped she would have Jim Steinberg job but know that is not what is on table and Lew job is great one If you decide you want [redacted] I think I can help You know how hard it was when AID fell through So if she is what you are looking for, let me know If not, she will be fine with what works for you.

Would love to talk to you about this today or in next few days Barb
