Subject: 24 Aug Meeting Readouts

Here are readouts of the morning meetings:

0845/Steinberg

India Nuke Liability Bill said S call to Mukherjee today will be important opportunity to shape legislation before its introduction tomorrow; French and Russians also helping.

Iraq Three attacks near U.S. personnel today (2 PRTs) ; no injuries.

Vietnam Rich noted rising Hill concern about Vietnam's 123 agreement, which doesn't insist on forswearing reprocessing/enrichment. [REDACTED]

New START Rich anticipates SFRC mark-up 9/15-16; Kyl may send a letter pressing to hold off vote until March after new Senate convenes. Rich says we now can only count on three Republican votes.

UPR NGOs and Hill staff briefed yesterday; so far only muted reaction (most criticism from ACLU!).

Al-Aulaki Sarah will meet with DOJ on efforts by his father to seek an injunction against killing him.

Burma Jim has approved new guidance that [REDACTED]

North Korea Carter mission already leaked into press [REDACTED]

Pakistan D/L reports Pakistan is seeking another donor's conference during Pakistan Development Conference in November; this may be too much after UNGA event and Friends of Pakistan event in October. S/RAP is looking into how best to manage.

0915/Steinberg

IO Working to persuade UN to accept NATO logistical support. Beginning work on UNIFIL extension with French. Encouraging UN SecGen to press harder on his special representative in Congo to speak out against sexual violence. Security Council will consider piracy resolution later this month. Working on MPG document for UNGA.

WHA Exploring possible assistance from NASA to Chile for use in supporting trapped miners.

SCA Will call Otunbayeva to encourage greater UN role in commission of inquiry investigating Kyrgyz unrest. OSCE police mission not moving because of local authorities' resistance. 25 Islamic radicals escaped from prison in Dushanbe and are at large in Tajikistan. Four Americans died in a plane crash in Nepal.

EUR Turkey still pressing for UNSC summit during UNGA on peacekeeping;  It seems unlikely a quorum of heads of state will commit to participate.

NEA SOL-Iraqqiya talks continuing in Baghdad; Barzani will meet with Allawi tomorrow. Turks cooperating well with us in Baghdad.

INL Haitian-American police contingent arrived in Haiti yesterday for 90 day deployment.

AF Violence is rising in Mogadishu, including today's suicide attack on a hotel hosting TFG parliamentarians.

PM Uzbeks want to buy 60 U.S. helicopters; unlikely we'll support the sale given human rights problems.
