

RELEASE IN PART B6

From: H <hrod17@clintonemail.com>
Sent: Thursday, May 20, 2010 6:28 PM
To: 'millsd@state.gov'
Subject: Re: note re ambo from trinidad and tobago

I'm happy to do public swearing in whenever. I won't call unless you have matters to discuss--and you can call me on my berry for another 30 minutes before we leave Alaska.

----- Original Message -----

From: Mills, Cheryl D <MillsCD@state.gov>
To: H
Sent: Thu May 20 18:12:36 2010
Subject: FW: note re ambo from trinidad and tobago

FYI below

Also – tried to reach you if you are still up.

From: tonywelters [redacted]
Sent: Thursday, May 20, 2010 4:28 PM
To: Mills, Cheryl D
Subject:

B6

Cheryl,

Hope all is well. I am now on my third visit to Port Of Spain. The upgrades Bea's interior decorator along with technology improvements has really turned this into a real residence. It has also put the [redacted] But, she's pleased and that's what's important. The Embassy staff appears to be responding positively to her approach. She hosted a reception for the entire Embassy and insisted that it included the janitors and cleaning staff. I think it surprised the Senior staff.

B6

I wanted to mention that Bea would still like the Secretary to do her public swearing in whenever her schedule permits.

Take Care,

TonyW.