Yes, I think it makes good sense.

Very nice offer. We should consider speech in Perth or in Sydney on way to or from since we have some time to fill before EAS.

This is a guy I went to Oxford with - he's now running the major think tank in Australia. Thought you would appreciate the punch line of this chain.

Thanks Jake, I appreciate it.

Your boss is on fire at the moment.

Michael – huge congrats. That's really incredible.

Let's stay in touch as the date approaches ... we'll definitely think of you as we plan our engagements in Perth, including the possibility of a speech.

Jake – big news (for me, in any case). I've been appointed Executive Director of the Lowy Institute, the Brookings/CFR of Australia: <http://www.theaustralian.com.au/news/breaking-news/lowy-institute-boss-steps-down/story-fn3dxiwe-1226452573608>

I wanted to say to you that if there's anything we can do to assist with the Secretary's planned visit to Perth in November for AUSMIN, I hope you'll think of us. In particular, if she wanted to give a speech and you were looking for a host or co-host, please get in contact.

Hope all is well with you.

Best wishes,
Michael

We saw him and his crew in Mexico - I'm not a bit surprised.

Jake – FYI, Kevin Rudd just resigned, in Washington of all places: <http://www.smh.com.au/opinion/political-news/soap-opera-must-end-rudd-quits-as-foreign-minister-20120222-1tn8j.html>

It was the release of this video that brought on this crisis: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uOUFKZBpFTY>

It's always interesting in Australian politics.

Cheers,
Michael
