Hi Huma. Making sure you all got this yesterday given everything going on in Jordan. Chelsea's mother-in-law was at the Dead Sea resorts when things started. All good now. Best, Matt

FYI – RSO reports the group made it safely to the airport after a circuitous routing around the road closures. Matt

Ok. Bart is checking on road situation, once he has some more information he will report back to us. Amb will reach out to her once we have a better idea of situation and if possible, Bart will go and get her and her traveling party (2 others)

We don't believe that she has a working cell phone here. We've been calling her by calling the Holiday Inn front desk and asking for her.

The number is: 05-349-5555

Her flight out of Amman is at 3:20 a.m. on British Airways.

Importance: High

Correction – Mezvinsky not the mother of the FSO. She's Chelsea Clinton's mother-in-law. Which answers the S question.

Sir,

We just received a call from S's office (Brock Johnson) regarding three Amcits staying at the Holiday Inn at the Dead Sea. They had intended to check out and return to Amman to catch a flight, but the hotel told them that the Dead Sea road was closed due to protests. We spoke to one of the Amcits, who was calm and said she would wait the situation out at the Dead Sea.

I've let Bart know, but wanted to make you aware of S's involvement. We are not clear who called Washington.

Incidentally, the Amcit we talked to is Marjorie Margolis Mezvinsky, and is the mother of an FSO. She said that she was at a conference with Mrs. Jones today.

- Ian.
