Wendy,

Thanks for your kind concern---and for everything you do. I have great confidence in your leadership.

I'd like to talk sometime today around your schedule. What works for you?

All the best, H

Madam Secretary,

Glad to hear that you are continuing to make progress. Your email message last evening to all at State was terrific and know it will be helpful to everyone.

Bill and Tom are hopefully getting some days of needed rest and others as well. I am on duty through Wednesday so please do not hesitate to let me know if you need anything or wish to catch up on anything. I know Jake has been briefing you as events have happened but glad he has taken off for a brief respite as well. I will make sure to stay in touch with Cheryl as well.

I hope you get to Chappaqua on Sunday and have a truly wonderful Christmas with your family and the beginning of a great new year. Everyone looks forward to making your final weeks at State as meaningful as have been the last four years. My only regret is that I've only been working for you for these past 15 months. My best to you, the President and to Chelsea.

Wendy
