See the operative grafs below.

B5

1. Strongly condemns the human rights violations occurring as a consequence of the coup d'état of 28 June 2009, and in particular following the return of President José Manuel Zelaya Rosales on 21 September 2009; 2. Calls for the immediate end to all human rights violations in Honduras and for the unconditional respect for all human rights and fundamental freedoms, as well as the restoration of democracy and the rule of law; 3. Calls on all actors and institutions to refrain from violence and to respect human rights and fundamental freedoms; 4. Expresses its support for regional and subregional efforts made to restore the democratic and constitutional order and the rule of law in Honduras;
