No. When we selected this site, we were told the US govt has provided money to heal africa since 2006. Apparently we gave half a million but thru IRC and other ngos, and I don't know the answer to why not direct except maybe just because these ngos have organizations set up on the ground.

Usaid hasn't given directly to heal
Has given thru other programs
Giving 250,000 directly next year for fistula repair.
