Thought you were airborne. The event went well. It was big. Way over a 1000 members of the community, most in Caracol Park shirts, over 100 press, all the Senators, Deputies, Ministers, Chambers of Commerce, Mayors, several local schools in uniforms, the Walmart and Kohls executives were very pleased, great images, the consecutive and simultaneous translators did a great job. Spoke to WJC. He though it was good. Your name was in most of the speeches. I am not used to doing events like that and being in charge of every tiny detail , so it was an interesting experience. Did I mention how much I miss Caitlin?

Big downside was that [redacted] was about 90minutes late [redacted]
