

RELEASE IN FULL

---

From: Sullivan, Jacob J <SullivanJJ@state.gov>
Sent: Thursday, April 26, 2012 1:35 PM
To: H
Subject: FW: Message for S

FYI

---

From: Gottemoeller, Rose E
Sent: Thursday, April 26, 2012 10:30 AM
To: Sullivan, Jacob J
Cc: Sherman, Wendy R
Subject: Message for S

Dear Jake: When I brought up next week's NPT PrepCom in staff meeting this morning, I was remiss in not mentioning Susan Burk's leadership role. I'd appreciate it if you'd put this note before the Secretary. Thanks. RG

---

Ma'am: When I mentioned the great work of our Geneva team in preparing for the NPT PrepCom, I was remiss in not highlighting the work of our NPT Special Envoy, Ambassador Susan Burk. She will be the head of delegation and has been putting in a terrific amount of "shoe leather," as she calls it, to ensure that the PrepCom will be a success. We are lucky to have such a talented and experienced diplomat leading our efforts.

With apologies for my omission,

RG