It's a very New York crowd and very Diane style event (i.e. unconventional) Last year, it was held in one of the big delegates' lounges at the UN and she redid all the chairs, etc in her patterns. The awards are all serious and DVF is the moderator. Each awardee receives 50K for her ongoing work. The event bears no resemblance to a typical foreign policy event, but if you were in NY, you could arrive for the awards and leave. I have no doubt you would be very warmly embraced and DVF and Barry are so fond of you. I would only do it if could be easily done.

Do you think I should do this?

Dearest Madame Secretary,

I am in Abu Dhabi, watching you on television with Prime Minister Natanyaou. You are looking so well ! You are more and more impressive...I am so proud of you !

We are planning our Women of the World Conference again for next March. On Saturday night, March 12th, I will be having the 2nd DVF Award at a dinner at the UN. 2 of the recipients will be women from Vital Voices, one will be voted by people on line and the fourth one is the special one give to formidable example of courage and leadership. Last year it was given to Ingrid Betancourt by Meryll Streep.

More than anything, I would love if you would be willing to accept that award. YOU are such an example of strength, leadership and spirit to all of us women.

Am I dreaming or would you be willing to accept it ?

Lots of love
