I am also really sorry because it has been a joy working w you. And I hope you'll only be a telephone call away for all of us seeking your advice and counsel. I'd like to talk w you next week about succession and when we can throw a big party for you! Godspeed and Happy New Year to you and your family.

I am really sorry I can't serve out the full term in H. I love my job, the people of the Department and working for you. Needless to say, I am grateful beyond words for the opportunity you offered me these last two years.
