Subject: Fw: Son of Turkish FM detained and then released at Dulles (SBU)

(SBU) Mehmet Davutoglu, son of the Turkish Foreign Minister, was detained for four hours in Dulles' secondary screening after arriving from Istanbul on Turkish Airways flight 7 for a study program at George Mason. Initial reports indicate Mr. Davutoglu was detained for traveling on an incorrect type of visa. The Turkish Embassy is aware of Davutoglu's detention and release.

Ops adds that the Turkey Desk was unaware Davutoglu's son was coming. Ultimately he was allowed to enter the United States. Desk and Ops trying to get more details.
